To whom it may concern:

Central DeWitt County Wildlife Management Association, a 501(c)(3) organization, currently composed of 265 member/landowners, covering 130,901 acres in Central, Eastern, and Northern DeWitt County, clearly showing evidence that our members and landowners are your daily customers. The Organization promotes Wildlife Education and Game Management for our members. Our Goal is to assist with good land stewardship and to provide college scholarships to persons from DeWitt and neighboring counties preferably interested in careers in Wildlife Management or Wildlife Law Enforcement or other course study which supports the association's goals.

At this time we are collecting donations for our Awards Banquet held February 7, 2014. At the Banquet we honor our members, acknowledge youth involvement in game management, as well as make presentations to our contest winners of the Photography Contest, Big Buck Contest, Spike Buck Contest, and No Buck Harvest Contest. We additionally recognize persons that have helped with our predator control objectives and overpopulation of wild hogs. We also hold a raffle ticket drawings and bucket raffle drawings for donated merchandise, gift certificates, and other related items promoting wildlife and outdoor activities. This year we hope to have donations that can be placed in a live auction and silent auction

We have already committed great prizes for the contests and raffle drawings as listed below. We need your help to fulfill our commitment to our Association's Goal to provide our Education Foundation the needed funding to support our scholarship program. Monetary donations will be accepted for each item listed below, simply mark the attached form of your desired sponsorship and we will make sure your generous donation is properly recognized. We will also accept gift certificates from your store or any merchandise related to outdoor activities. Undesignated monetary donations will be used to purchase any non-sponsored award items or the purchase of live or silent auction items.
